Nature of Appeal:

Appeal about registration of old minerals permissions: under Paragraphs 17(1) and (2) of Schedule 8

Appeal about conditions or restrictions of working rights in reviews of old mineral planning permissions:
under Paragraph 11(1) of Schedule 9

Appeal about conditions imposed in periodic reviews of minerals planning permissions:
under Paragraph 9(1) of Schedule 10

Appeals where a review of mineral permissions applications has not been determined by the planning authority within a period of 4 months:
under regulation 33 of The Town and Country Planning (Environmental Impact Assessment)(Scotland) Regulations 2011

Appeal Against:

Refusal of application or appeal against conditions

Failure of the planning authority to give a decision on the application involving an environmental impact assessment development

Statement of Appeal

You MUST state, in full, why you are appealing against the planning authority's decision/failure to give a decision (for applications involving environmental impact assessment only). Your statement must set out all matters you consider require to be taken into account in determining your appeal.

State the reasons for your appeal and all matters you wish to raise here. (If necessary, this can be continued or provided in full on a separate document).

List of documents/evidence

Provide a list of all documents, materials and evidence which you have provided with your appeal and intend to rely on in support of your appeal and ensure that the documents are clearly numbered (If necessary, this can be continued or provided in full on a separate document). When listing plans and drawings please quote the reference the planning authority gave them.

Appeal Procedure

Please indicate the preferred method of determination for your appeal (See Notes for Appellants)

Review of all relevant information provided by yourself and other parties only, with no further procedure

Inspection of land subject of the appeal

Further written submissions on specific matters

Site Inspection

In the event that the Scottish Government Reporter appointed to consider your appeal decides to inspect the appeal site, in your opinion:

Can the site be viewed entirely from public land? Yes No

Is it possible for the site to be accessed safely, and without barriers to entry? Yes No

Are there any biosecurity issues that affect the site?
(for more information on biosecurity, please see the site inspection section in the notes for appellants) Yes No

If there are reasons why you think the Reporter would be unable to access and view the appeal site alone, please explain here:

Other Appeals

Have you made any other appeals to Scottish Ministers concerning this land? Yes No
If yes, please give details, including our appeal reference numbers (if known):

Checklist

Please mark the appropriate boxes to confirm you have provided all supporting documents/evidence relevant to your appeal:

Full completion of all parts of this form

Full statement of appeal

A copy of the application to planning authority, including any suggested conditions plus the certificates relating to notification of land owners etc which accompanied it

A copy of all plans or drawings and other particulars and documents that accompanied the application including, if possible, a plan showing the site, marked in red (preferably on an extract from the relevant 1:10,000 OS Map)

A copy of the certificates relating to the notification of neighbours and land owners etc required in connection with the appeal

A copy of all other relevant correspondence with the Planning Authority

Copies of any other plans, drawings and documents sent to the Planning Authority but which are not part of the application (such as drawings for illustrative purposes)

Copies of any additional plans, drawings, documents relating to the application but not previously seen by the Planning Authority *Number all plans and drawings clearly and list them here:

* Plans and Drawings- A copy of the location plan at a scale of 1:1250 or 1:2500 and scale copies of all the drawings submitted as part of the application under appeal should be submitted electronically. Please note that as it is not always possible for electronic plans and drawings to be scaled correctly you may be asked to provide some or all of these in hard copy at a later date.

The Scottish Government routinely publishes all documents relating to each appeal on its website at www.dpea.scotland.gov.uk. You must advise DPEA if there are particular reasons why you think any document you have provided cannot be published.

Declaration

I appeal to the Scottish Ministers as set out on this form and supporting documents. I can confirm that I have today sent a copy of my appeal to the Planning Authority.
