

1. Do you agree that local authorities should be under a duty to ensure that food and drinks which they provide in their schools, including nurseries, meet defined nutrient standards?

Yes  No

Comment (add separately if required)

Ice cream vans should be discouraged for trading at school gates

2. Where children are attending independent schools, and where the provision of food and drinks are arranged or funded, by a local authority, should the food and drinks meet defined nutrient standards?

Yes  No

Comment (add separately if required)

3. Should local authorities be under a duty to promote uptake of school meals in their schools, including free school meals?

Yes  No

LA should make it compulsory that all children have school meals, or inspected packed lunches

Comment (add separately if required)

4. Should local authorities be under a duty to ensure that those taking free school meals can do so anonymously, as far as is practicable?

Yes  No

Comment (add separately if required)

If school meals were free to all children, this would be an issue.

5. Should local authorities have the power to provide children in local authority schools with free drinks, fruit, vegetables, bread or cereal based snacks, which meet defined nutrient standards?

Yes  No

Comment (add separately if required)

6. Should there be a duty on Scottish Ministers and local authorities to endeavour to ensure that all local authority schools are health promoting schools?

Yes  No

Comment (add separately if required)

7. Any other comments? (add separately if required)

For many children, the only nutrition is from free school meals. Children gain enormously from communal eating. If children ate at lunchtime, less smoking would happen outside the school!

« Previous | Contents | Next »