Credit Union Debts in Protected Trust Deeds

2a Do you think that cancelling debt in a Protected Trust Deed has a particularly harsh impact on any other creditor?

Yes No

2b If yes, what other creditors are affected?

2c Do you think that Protected Trust Deeds should give special protection to any other type of creditor and which ones?

NO, ALL CREDITORS SHOULD BE TREATED EQUALLY

3a Do you think that introducing special protection for credit unions (or another type of creditor) would unduly harm the interests of the rest of the creditors?

Yes No

3b If yes, what evidence do you have to support your comments?

IT WOULD GIVE A PREFERENCE

4a Which of the following options do you think would be the most appropriate?

- Option 1 (Do Nothing) – The intended reform of Protected Trust Deeds will be sufficient to protect the interests of all creditors, including Credit Unions.
- Option 2 (Debts not Cancelled) - Debts due to Credit Unions should not be cancelled by Protected Trust Deeds.

4b Why do you think this option is most appropriate?

INTENDED REFORM IS ADEQUATE

4c Do you have any other comments on these options that we should consider?
