Dear Mr Glen

Thank you for the opportunity to comment upon the proposed regulations. On the whole, they are to be commended and I look forward to a higher quality of life as experienced in New York. My only reservation concerns the blanket exemption of adult care homes and hospices. Just as people have enjoyed smoke free existences through their lives, they should not be denied the opportunity to enjoy that comfort in the end stages - why not have designated rooms/wings/zones as per hotels for those who have smoked through their lives and for whom it would be as traumatic being required to give up as for those being required to live with it?

Kind regards
