

Response from Mr Steven Beaton
Address Confidential

Further to your consultation paper, I am very firmly of the view that the way forward is to bring all current toll regimes to an end, as with the Skye Bridge. Motorists, in all shapes and forms, already contribute far more in taxes (VED, fuel for example) than is received back in the upgrade of roads etc.

Removal of all tolls is long overdue and should be lifted as soon as possible