PROBLEMS

Sometimes the Support Worker doesn't turn up and doesn't phone to let me know and I have to phone them which uses up my money.

Although I work voluntary in a very useful capacity helping people the government still expect me to find a full-time job and I have been looking in the job centre for a long time and nothing has come up.

Support projects have developed my social skills I've met a lot of people and workshops (community workshops) have taught me new skills so that I can live independently.
