

Consultation response

Question 1: We would like to know in what context you are responding. Please choose one of the following:

I am responding as:

- a) an individual who experiences chronic pain
- b) a family member or carer of someone who experiences chronic pain
- c) a health professional
- d) an organisation representing people who experience chronic pain
- e) other stakeholder (please tell us in the comments box below)

Comments (box expands with text input - there is no word limit) Although I am responding as an individual, I am the chair of the Scottish Health Campaigns Network.

Question 2: Please choose your preferred option (Chapter 2 provides details).

- Option 1 – a centre of excellence in a single location
- Option 2 – a service delivered by local chronic pain clinicians (supported by other clinical advisors in another part of the country)
- Option 3 – a service delivered in different locations (by a team of chronic pain specialists – an outreach or roving service)

Please tell us why this is your preferred option in the comments box below. The factors listed in Chapter 2 of the consultation paper may help you.

Comments (box expands with text input - there is no word limit) Option 1 is my preferred option because chronic pain management is a developing area of medicine and therefore it would make sense to start in one place and then move out. Also, the Centre of Integrative Care is in Glasgow on the Gartnavel campus and would be an ideal choice for this service.

Question 3: Are there any of the options you disagree with? (If No, move straight to Question 4.)

If yes, please tell us which one(s) in the comments box, and why?

Comments (box expands with text input - there is no word limit) I disagree with Option 3. This approach can work for acute care with one-off operations – it isn't going to work for treatment that requires repeated appointments and assessment.

Question 4: If you have other ideas that have not been covered, please tell us about these in the comments box below. You may want to include the advantages and disadvantages of each.

Question 5: What do you think the barriers are to accessing a residential pain management service? (For example, distance away from family, work or family commitments, upfront travel costs.)

Please list as many as you wish in the comments box below and include any others that are important to you.

Comments (box expands with text input - there is no word limit) Barriers to residential pain management are;

- 1.) Distance – the current service is in Bath
- 2.) GP referral – it is being offered as a last resort and sometimes not at all; it is seen as an extra.
- 3.) Travel costs –again because the current service is in Bath

Question 6: Please choose from the list below which aspects of residential pain management services should be included in a Scottish service.

(choose as many as apply)

Question 7: Irrespective of the final service model selected, should access to the current service provided in Bath (or elsewhere in the UK) be retained for occasional use?

Yes No Don't Know

Question 8: Have you previously attended, or supported someone attending a residential service outside Scotland?

Yes (please answer Question 9)

No (please move straight to Question 10)

Question 9: If you have attended, or supported someone attending a residential service outside Scotland, please tell us about any advantages and disadvantages of the experience.
