No

6. If you answered yes, what form should Scottish Ministers prescribe?

7. Are there any further comments you would like to offer on these draft Regulations?

The Council is committed to robust self-evaluation and would want discretion to allow this ethos to inform the development of a relevant and robust local performance framework.

It is currently proposed that a performance report must include “a comparison between the reporting year and at least the preceding five reporting years”. We would suggest that the preceding three years would be adequate to provide relevant and meaningful comparison and performance management.
