None. It is patronising to consider such.

44. If the proposed measures are likely to have a substantial negative implication for equality, how might this be minimised or avoided?

They won't.

45. Do you have any other comments on or suggestions relevant to the proposals in regard to equality considerations?

Comments

Business and Regulatory Impacts Considerations

46. What is your assessment of the likely financial implications, or other impacts (if any), of the introduction of each of these proposals on you or your organisation?

Hopefully you will lose your job soon.

47. What (if any) other significant financial implications are likely to arise?

Misery for everyone? that is no doubt your goal.

48. What lead-in time should be allowed prior to implementation of these measures and how should the public be informed?

About three millennia. Carrier pigeon.

49. Do you have any other comments on or suggestions relevant to the proposals in regard to business and regulatory impacts?

You need to be locked up.

As a party to the World Health Organization's Framework Convention on Tobacco Control (FCTC), Scotland has an obligation to protect the development of public health policy from the vested interests of the tobacco industry. To meet this obligation, we ask all respondents to disclose whether they have any direct or indirect links to, or receive funding from, the tobacco industry. We will still carefully consider all consultation responses from the tobacco industry and from those with links to the tobacco industry and include them in the published summary of consultation responses.
