Statement of Appeal

Ground(s) of appeal, as set out in Section 130(1)(b)-(g) of the Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act 1997. Note: your appeal must be based on one or more of these grounds.

(b) the matters stated in the notice to involve a breach of planning control have not occurred

(c) the matters stated in the notice (if they occurred) do not constitute a breach of planning control

(d) at the date when the notice was issued, no enforcement action could be taken in relation to the matters stated in the notice to involve a breach of planning control

(e) copies of the enforcement notice were not served as required by Section 127 of Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act 1997

(f) the steps required by the notice to be taken (or the activities required by the notice to cease) exceed what is necessary to remedy any breach of planning control stated in the notice, or to remedy any injury to amenity caused by that breach

(g) the period specified in the notice (to comply with the steps to be taken) falls short of what should reasonably be allowed

Provide a statement of your appeal below, setting out all matters you wish to raise and which require to be taken into account in determining your appeal.

Note: you might not have a further opportunity to add to your statement of appeal at a later date, so it is essential that you produce all of the information you want the decision-maker to take into account. (If necessary, this can be continued or provided in full on a separate document).

List of documents/evidence

Provide a list of all documents, materials and evidence which you have provided with your appeal and intend to rely on in support of your appeal and ensure that the documents are clearly numbered (If necessary, this can be continued or provided in full on a separate document).

Appeal Procedure

The person appointed to determine your appeal will decide the procedure to be used. In general, a decision will be made based on your appeal documents and the planning authority's response. In some cases the appointed person may require further procedures to gain more information on specific matters before reaching a decision. This is your opportunity to indicate what procedure you think is most appropriate for the handling of your appeal. (See Notes for Appellants)

1. Review of all relevant information provided by yourself and other parties only, with no further procedure
2. Inspection of land subject of the appeal
3. Further written submissions on specific matters
4. Holding one or more hearing sessions (i.e. round table discussions) on specific matters
5. Holding one or more formal inquiry sessions on specific matters

* You can suggest a combination involving more than one further procedure, if necessary.

If boxes 3, 4 or 5 are checked, please explain below which of the matters (as set out in your statement above) you think should be subject to that procedure, and why. (Use additional pages if necessary.)

Site Inspection

In the event that the Scottish Government Reporter appointed to consider your appeal decides to inspect the appeal site, in your opinion:

Can the site be viewed entirely from public land?	Yes	No
Is it possible for the site to be accessed safely, and without barriers to entry?	Yes	No
Are there any biosecurity issues that affect the site? (for more information on biosecurity, please see the site inspection section in the notes for appellants)	Yes	No

If there are reasons why you think the reporter would be unable to access and view the appeal site alone, please explain here:

Other Appeals

Have you made any other appeals to Scottish Ministers concerning this land?

Yes

No

If yes, please give details, including our appeal reference numbers (if known):

Checklist

Please mark the appropriate boxes to confirm you have provided all supporting documents/evidence relevant to your appeal:

Enforcement notice issued by the planning authority, which is the subject of your appeal
