Revocation by the Scottish Ministers													j
The Scottish Ministers revoke the patient's Ohospital direction or transfer for treatment direction for the following reason:
0 .	The Scottish Minis	ters	are	not	t sat	tisfie	ed t	hat	the	pati	ent	has	a m	nent	al c	lisor	der
•	The Scottish Ministers are satisfied that the patient has a mental disorder but are not satisfied that, as a result of the patient's mental disorder, it is necessary, in order to protect any other person from serious harm, for the patient to be detained in hospital, whether or not for medical treatment; and that the conditions mentioned in paragraphs (b) and (c) of section 206(4) of this Act continue to apply in respect of the patient
The Mental Health Tribunal for Scotland have directed the Scottish Ministers to revoke the direction to which the patient is subject under section 215(5) of the Act.
