

9 January 2003

Iain Gray Announces Review of SIDAB

SIDAB – the Scottish Industrial Development Advisory Board – considers all offers of Regional Selective Assistance over £250,000. It advises on whether assistance should be given and whether any changes should be made to the proposed conditions or amount of grant. Over the coming months, SIDAB’s status and performance will be reviewed and, as part of this, there will be a public consultation with interested organisations and members of the public.

If you would like us to contact you and seek your views, please let us know by e-mailing your contact details to:

SIDAB.consult@scotland.gsi.gov.uk

or by writing to :

Dr Watt
SIDAB Consultation
Scottish Executive
5th Floor
Meridian Court
Glasgow
G2 6AT

More information about Regional Selective Assistance (RSA) can be found at www.rsaScotland.gov.uk .

Please note that this consultation is about SIDAB and NOT about RSA which was recently subject to its own detailed review (the outcome of which can be found on the RSA Scotland website).