

-----Original Message-----

From: Mailer-Daemon@scotland.gov.uk [mailto:Mailer-Daemon@scotland.gov.uk]

Sent: 06 May 2005 20:49

To: Parental Involvement Bill

Subject: Parentzone Making the Difference Questionnaire

Response from the Parentzone - Parental Involvement questionnaire

Name: Anne Kelly

Responding as: An individual

Individual: Yes

Confidentiality: Yes, make my response and name available, but not my address

Behalf of groups:

Sharing responses / future engagement: Yes

Question 1: yes

Question 2: no - I believe that the current School Boards are working well, although they could benefit from some minor changes to the election process

Question 3: not sure it matters as where the information exists, as long as things are made clear for parents and the information is in the public domain.

Question 4: No- I believe that current school boards already are decided locally by parents, I think that joining boards with PTA'S will decrease the number of parents involved not increase them.

Question 5: No, the election process is fair (that's why we use it to elect a government)- it should be made easier.

Question 6: yes, as they should for a school board

Question 7:

Question 8: yes they should support parents

Question 9: yes

Question 10: yes

Question 11:

Question 12: yes

Question 13: The Head Teacher's attendance should be essential' as should regular attendance of councillors.

Question 14:

Question 15:

Question 16:

Question 17:

Question 18: yes - any parents involving themselves to this level of activity in the school should have access to a budget.

Question 19: yes

Question 20: Having been involved with the appointment of our Head Teacher' I think that the current process is acceptable to parents.

Question 21:

Question 22: not sure