

285

-----Original Message-----

From: Mailer-Daemon@scotland.gov.uk [mailto:Mailer-Daemon@scotland.gov.uk]

Sent: 27 May 2005 12:08

To: Parental Involvement Bill

Subject: Parentzone Making the Difference Questionnaire

Response from the Parentzone - Parental Involvement questionnaire

Name: Ronnie Green

Responding as: An individual

Individual: Yes

Confidentiality: Yes, make my response and name available, but not my address

Behalf of groups: Yes

Sharing responses / future engagement: Yes

Question 1: It is a great thing to have the parents along side the education authorities, feel this will build better communities.

Question 2: Yes it is a benefit to familys in the community to encourage parents to be involved in a very important are for young children

Question 3: No this is fine

Question 4: Yes as this I belive will encourage more involement from parents.

Question 5: Not fully as guidance will be required.

Question 6: Yes this will encourage the parental involment and build relationship with the school staff.

Question 7: It is worth considering

Question 8: Yes, would say mandatory

Question 9: Would be good if both parties could work on this.

Question 10: Would think it better to have parents that have children attending the school, as this would add more focus.

Question 11: Not a specific view, but the interest and welfare of the children should take first prioity

Question 12: Would think only necessary when engaging in defined areas.

Question 13: Would suggest for this to work well from both sides, there needs to be a openness and willingness for all involved.

Question 14: Yes

Question 15: Open-ended is the best way forward

Question 16: Agree this would be helpful, as it would have the backing of the school.

Question 17: We have to give this a go, as we need to have a better involment for both sides on this.

Question 18: Would think that this should not be neccessary, but rather a willingness to for this to benefit the school and children.

Question 19: Yes this would encourage openness all round.

Question 20: Only if it is in the benefit of the education of the children

Question 21: No I am in agreement

Question 22: Yes and would also think that it should be consider for the Parental forums too.